FROM MY HEART TO YOURS:

Jesus People

As a college student, I served as a summer missionary in Thailand. One day the career missionary announced we were going to make a trip. Our destination was an isolated village some distance away. We traveled down a dusty road and across a bumpy field. At last the village was in sight.

Suddenly children came from everywhere. They ran alongside our vehicle chanting something I could not understand. I asked the missionary for an explanation. He modestly reported they were saying, "Here comes the Jesus man."

We stopped at a hut near the center of the village and a woman greeted us warmly. The missionary already had told me her story. She was a leper who had sought treatment in a leprosy clinic. While there, someone introduced her to Jesus and she became a Christian. With her disease under control, she returned to her village—but as a changed person.

The woman would not rest until all her friends and neighbors had heard the gospel. Each week she and the missionary conducted a Sunday School class under the trees in her yard. She longed for the day when everyone in her village would experience God's work of grace in their lives. Her loving, caring Christian spirit had already begun to transform the attitudes and relationships of those around her.

A half century later, I can still hear the kids chanting, "Here comes the Jesus man." In reality, we all are or should be Jesus men, women, teens and children. We are Jesus people. We belong to him. Our lives should bear witness to the change he has made in us. We

Where Do We Go from Here?

COVID-19 cases continue to rise. Meanwhile, we have been careful to follow the recommended safety and health guidelines as we gather for Sunday Morning Worship and Prayer Meeting each week. Temperature is taken at the doors with infrared thermometers. Hand sanitizer is provided. Everyone wears masks. Social distancing is maintained. Some who do not feel comfortable to attend are watching the service live or taking advantage of the recording available each Sunday afternoon.

Our Deacons started meeting again on July 7. The next meeting will be Tuesday, August 4, in Fellowship Hall. Please feel free to contact your deacon or any of our church staff if you have needs to be met.

On the administrative side, we have missed deadlines for the selection of committee members and deacons. Thankfully, changes in our Constitution and By-Laws voted on at the July Business Meeting, call for church leaders to serve on a calendar basis instead of

Rose Mary Dauber
150 Needham Road
Hot Springs, AR 71901

Rose Mary Dauber needs no introduction to BRBC as she has been a valuable asset to our choir's special programs many times in the past. We are delighted that she has agreed to be Interim Worship Leader.

Her parents were members of BRBC in 1979 and she came to help with the music program and has maintained a fellowship with the church ever since.

A long-time resident of the area (45 years in the same house), Rose Mary and her late husband moved here from Akron, Ohio. She had a career at Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. where she was a full-charge bookkeeper and secretary. She continued those activities upon moving. Now she spends her time cooking for family, sewing and gardening. She also likes to fish and is a volunteer for Jackson House. And, of course, MUSIC.

Rose Mary has a daughter and son who live in Hot Springs and a son in Kansas. She has five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

When we are able to resume having Sunday School, Rose Mary will decide from the classes she had been visiting.

Welcome back, Rose Mary.

Jason and Randi Graves, Olive and Dayden Hines

Hot Springs Village, AR 71909

We are delighted to have the Graves family join us as members. Jason and Randi Graves and Dayden and Olive Hines joined May 19. Jason is related to Deacon Terry Anderson.

Jason is a sergeant with the Hot Springs Village Police Department and Randi is an Instructional Paraprofessional at Jessierville Middle School.

Dayden is entering 7th grade and is on the football and track team. He also enjoys video games. Olive, a 5th grader, is on the mini-cheerleading squad and loves art and drawing. This summer she and a friend are writing a story.

Jason enjoys hunting and fishing and Randi enjoys art and craft projects with the kids.

They have lived in the area for four years having moved here from the Buckville Community.

Gatekeepers Sunday School class is glad to have Jason and Randi as new members and Dayden and Olive will be in the Youth and Children's Dept.

We welcome this lovely family.
